2022 annual Bias Methods Group meeting(s)

In November 2022, we hosted our annual Bias Methods Group meeting across two sessions online. At the first meeting, Miguel Hernán (Kolokotronis Professor of Biostatistics and Epidemiology at Harvard University) gave a talk on repurposing old drugs for new diseases during the COVID-19 pandemic. Slides from the meeting are available here. At the second meeting, members of the Bias Methods Group presented research
